A Henderson man came in to renew his subscription to the DAILY NEWS yesterday. Says he, "my time ran out three weeks ago, and there has been no peace or luck in my household since."

THANKS.—We return thanks to Maj. Winder for a complimentary to the Fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, which takes place on October 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th.

PERSONAL.—Capt. W. J. Black, and W. H. Gregory, of Charlotte, passed through the city yesterenroute home from an extended pleasure tour on the Carolina coast. Rather early for "ducking" but guess they found a few.

MECHANICS' B. & L. ASSOCIATION. An adjourned meeting of the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association will be held in the Court House this (Friday) evening, Aug. 27th.—Every member is earnestly requested to be present in person or by proxy, as business of much importance will come up for consideration.

WM. SIMPSON, Sec'y.

REMODELED.—The "Green Front" saloon of Messrs. Harrison & Bashford, on Hargett street, has been entirely remodeled, refitted and refurnished. The walls are handsomely painted, and the frescoeing on the ceiling is one of the prettiest jobs in the City. Tommy Harrison, one of the most experienced "mixers" in the city, attends in person to this branch of the business, and will always be found on hand. Look out for the announcement to-morrow.

THE PREMIUM LISTS.—We learn from the Secretary, Maj. Winder, that complaints have been received from different sections in regard to the premium lists—saying they are not able to obtain them. The Secretary has sent to all the Granges a full supply for the neighborhoods in which they are located. Where there were no Granges convenient, they were sent to merchants. The people can therefore get them by application either to the Grange, at the store, or sending to the Secretary, Maj. Winder, in this city.

THE STREETS.—Street Commissioner Andrews, since his induction into office, has been engaged principally in removing rotten timbers supporting the covered bridges and substituting in their stead, rock. It is a wonder that more accidents caused by bridges falling in does not occur. All the holes in the streets, particularly those streets that are mostly traversed by drays and teams, are being filled with concrete stone. All the improvements that are being made are of a permanent character, and we may reasonably expect a better condition of the streets this winter over that of last winter.

B. L. BINGHAM & CO.—As will be seen by advertisement in to-day's NEWS, the firm of Messrs. Wyatt, Bingham & Co. has been dissolved, and is succeeded by B. L. Bingham & Co., who will conduct the business as heretofore at the same stand. The superior business attainments of the Senior member of the new firm are too well known in this community to require editorial comment. The farmers and buyers generally will find this strong house all that it claims to be, prompt, reliable, and attentive to the interest of its customers. They keep on hand a full supply of groceries and staple goods, and will sell as cheap as the cheapest.

THE HAYWOOD COUNTY HOMICIDE.—The following particulars of the unfortunate homicide in Haywood county, we clip from the Greensville (S. C.) Daily News:

We learn that on Friday last, Mr. Jas. Murray, a highly respected citizen, was shot and instantly killed by one Strange, from Wilmington. It seems that Murray had been engaged to haul a party of excursionist to Catalooche creek, and being a little behind time, Strange told him he ought to have come sooner, and Murray replied that he could not get off sooner, whereupon Strange told him he was a liar, when Murray said, you are another. The matter hushed here, and not until they got to Cove creek did it revive. One of the carriages broke down, when they all stopped. Strange went to the carriage and asked one of the party for a pistol, remarking that he would settle the matter now, and walking up to Murray, shot him in the breast killing him instantly, when Strange was arrested and kept under guard, till a warrant could be obtained, when he was taken into custody and carried to jail. The excitement was so great in that section, that it was nearly impossible to keep him from being lynched on the spot.

NOT ALL GONE YET.—We had thought that most of the flowers of Spring were gone, but judging from the beautiful boquets that adorned the desks of the President of the State National Bank and the presiding genius of the Yarborough House yeterday we are led to believe that the season for the prettiest and most flagrant is just at hand. The boquets in their arrangement were perfect jems of beauty, and reflected much credit on the artistic skill of the fair hands that prepared them.

As we looked over the several lots sent these happy grass widowers in one day and contemplated the fact that we had only received one small bunch of half ripe grapes. our reflections took a serious turn upon the whims, fancies and caprices of womankind, and why it was they are just as apt to fancy an ugly man as one better looking——but it is the nature of the animal, and so it will remain till the end of all things here below. It is strange but nevertheless true.

MORE COUNTERFEITERS.

Two Young Men of Respectable Families Arrested in Kinston for Counterfeiting—They Confess the Crime—The Modus Operandi—Preliminary Trial in Newbern To-Day.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE NEWS]

KINSTON, N. C., Aug. 26, 1875.

The first counterfeiting probably ever known in Eastern Carolina came to light here yesterday. Two young men from Craven county, named respectively John J. Brock and John W. Rhen, were arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshall Hunter, charged with the high crime.

It appears that they went to the store of a negro, by the name of Louis Fisher, in the suburbs of the town, and purchased some tobacco, giving in payment therefor three 5c. nickel pieces. The suspicion of the negro was aroused by the peculiar brightness of the pieces, which upon closer examination showed very plain and palpable defects in moulding. He applied his knife and found that the beautiful bright nickel was only pewter. Fisher at once made the matter known to the authorities, and the arrest was determined upon.

The parties in the meantime left the town, but pursuit was made and they were soon overtaken and brought back. Being closely questioned they confessed they had the moulds for the purpose and manufactured the counterfeit. They also confessed having made the mould, by impression on wood from a genuine piece. Whether this is true remains yet to be seen. It is possible that they are only the agents of a much larger concern, and there is no telling what amount of the larger coin there is afloat in this section.—Only fifteen pieces of the coin could be found on their person, but they had sufficient opportunity to hide what they had.

They were young men of tolerable good standing in the community in which they lived, and it is to be regretted that this misfortune should have occurred.

They will be taken to Newbern for a preliminary trial before the U. S. Commissioner at that place.

THE Y. M. A.—There is quite a revival feeling pervading the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, and we have reason to hope and believe that it will continue until the lethargy that has heretofore oppressed it is thrown off and the objects sought in its organization are accomplished. They have held several interesting meetings recently, at which much enthusiasm prevailed, and general good for the Association was the result. They have leased the elegant hall in the Briggs building, which is being fitted up in first class style, and will be ready for dedication next Wednesday evening. Rev. A. W. Mangum, of Chapel Hill, has been invited to make the dedicatory address, and he is expected to be present on the occasion. Other distinguished speakers will be on hand, and the exercises promise to be of a very interesting character. The public are invited to attend.

OUTRAGE IN JOHNSTON COUNTY.—Johnston county has been the scene of another of those horrible crimes, for which tardy justice is too slow to reach. About two weeks ago, Miss Rhode Enniss, a young lady of highly respectable parentage, while walking along the public road near the Harnett county line was overtaken by a strong, staunch negro man by the name of Virgil Stuart. After the morning salutation, he rushed upon her and after choking her senseless committed the miserable crime, for which he will be most assuredly hung, provided he does not escape from the Johnston County jail where he is now confined. These crimes are becoming most too frequent in this section, and we cannot but think that a few instances of Lynch's administration of justice would have a salutary effect.

WARREN HARE.—Warren Hare, the alleged poisoner, gave bail yesterday morning, in the sum of $500, Capt. W. W. White becoming his surety, and was released from jail. He was subsequently arrested for retailing liquors without license, and his trial came off before Mayor Stronach, at 12 o'clock. He had purchased the license he was operating with from the person he succeeded in business, and the custom having been established, allowing this loose way of business, he was discharged on the payment of costs. In regard to the poison case, we learn that the prosecution has additional evidence corroborative of Crosson's statement as to the time he was seen talking with Hare in front of the bar.

All we desire, is to see the matter thoroughly sifted that truth may prevail. If guilty, let him suffer the full penalty of the law. If innocent let it be so shown and an honorable acquital follow.

A comfortable four-room house, within 100 yards of the Market House, for rent. See advertisement.

Warren Hare was arrested by the Police on the streets last night for being drunk and disorderly. He at first resisted but was knocked down and taken to the Station House by force.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker are continually receiving new goods. They are now laying in their first installment of fall goods. Read their advertisement in another column and give them a call.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—We are under obligations to our friend Capt. S. Robertson of Greensboro for a specimen lot of the Beecher radish. We shall endeavor to preserve the seed of this new variety and supply some of our friends in seed next season.

S. L. Fremont, &c. At least six students are known to be going from Edgecombe. The indications are that there will be a splendid success

JEWELL AWARDED.—The Past Grands Jewel, made by H. Mahler, of this city, for the ladies of Davie Street M. E. Church, was last night awarded to Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. The tickets sold, standing as follows:

Manteo Lodge—9.
Raleigh Lodge—14.
Seaton Gales Lodge—54.

P. G. R. H. Whitaker presented the Jewel in a few very appropriate remarks.

THE LINGARDS.—Wm. Horace Lingard and Alice Dunning are two characters well known to the Raleigh play-goers. We therefore copy the following item as one of some little local interest:

Amelia Martha Thomas complains in the court of Middlesex, England, that William Thomas, after having married and deserted her, was guilty of the indiscretion of marrying Alice Ann Dunning and running away to the United States, where he tends the mimic scene as Wm. Horace Lingard, and Amelia further demands that he shall come home and defend a suit for divorce or take the consequences.

MUSQUITOES.—The mosquito crop is having lively and seasonable newspaper attention. The quality of the article does not appear to have deteriorated, but it is said that in many sections the crop is unprecedentedly small; a complaint which will be fully remedied, we judge, so soon as the sun gets a chance at the results of recent rains. A scientist, who appears to have made a speciality of the "swamp-pirate," says that our methods of avoiding his sanguinary attacks are unphilosophical, and therefore wrong. He says the mosquito virtuously hates and abominates two things: light and a draft of air. Our system of avoiding him panders directly to his taste in that regard, because we deem it essential to put out the light and close the windows. He never flies toward a flame, but skulks in dark places of a room until the lights be put out, when he proceeds to business unless there be breeze or draft enough to scatter his forces. The writer, therefore, prescribes plenty of light and a current of air as absolute preventives against musquito aggressiveness—all which may be very well; but as in many rooms the desired current of air cannot be secured, it is absolutely necessary the "pirate" be scrupulously excluded and deprived of the opportunity of entering. Possibly the scientist is right, but a well regulated mosquito net is better philosophy than his.

There really appears to have been some ground for the recent excitement in Georgia. The trouble, as far as we can learn, originated with a few turbulent fellows, anxious to gain notoriety or perhaps to enrich themselves in some way, who got up the plot, or the pretense of a plot, and drew a number of ignorant negroes into it. The "orders" that were found and the promises of assistance from the militia of neighboring States may have been genuine, but were quite as probably forged, in order to help the thing along, but there was enough in the plot to terrify the scattered whites when it was discovered, and the wonder is, in such a state of affairs, that they kept their heads as well as they did. For this the chief credit seems to be due to the temperate action of Governor Smith, as well as to the good sense of the leading people of both races. A hundred or so of negroes were arrested in each of two counties, but all except half a dozen ringleaders have been already released, and the latter are likely to have a fair trial. It would be rather a good thing for the South if about a dozen fellows in each State, black and white, could be judiciously selected for hanging. The great mass of negroes, in Georgia especially, would get along quietly enough, and the whites with them, if it were not for a few demagogues among them as ambitious and unscrupulous as they are ignornat.—Philadelphia Times.

The New York News, a newspaper which circulates over one hundred thousand copies daily, says:

"Three Presidential elections—1864, '68 and '72—have been decided against the Democratic candidates, by the money and influence, the hired Republican newspapers, and the treasonable and purchased pretended Democratic newspapers of the National Banks. These have been only the preliminary struggles, and the greater is to come in 1876. We shall then see whether money or men rule America!"

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF THE HON. W. A. GRAHAM.

At a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Western North Carolina Insane Asylum, held at Morganton on the 17th inst., Dr. Eugene Grissom submitted the following remarks:

Mr. President:—It is eminently proper that this commission should take notice of an event most painful to the citizens of North Carolina. It is my sad duty to announce to you the death of a former member of your body, the Hon W. A. Graham, which occurred at Saratoga, New York, on Wednesday last the 11th inst. Although not at that time a member of this commission, he received the appointment for the same at the hands of the General Assembly and only declined its duties, on account of the great public responsibilities he had already assumed in other fields of usefulness and of the impaired health, that foretold his approaching end. He met the Board at their first meeting and manifested great interest in and profound sympathy for the work that is with the smiles of Providence, in coming years to carry comfort and consolation to so many households, and rescue so many fellow creatures from the dread doom of mental death.

He aided you by his wise counsels in your initiatory steps and warmly and generously tendered his services, his personal help and influence in any future emergency in the prosecution of your labors, to the completion of the task assigned to you by the State. His excellent letter on file will be sacredly preserved in your records. It will be remembered that he expresses therein the most sincere interests in the effort to secure additional accomodations for the insane of our State, and reiterates the expression of deep regret that the imperative circumstances to which I have alluded prevented him from co-operating in the labors of the building commission.

The grave has closed over his honored head, and it is grateful to recall his warm expressions of personal regard for the several members of your body, and you will not fail to cherish its recollection. Gov. Graham was truly a great man in the full acceptation of that term; through all his relations of life, whether private, public, or social, he was above reproach, and in every position of trust, whether as representative in the State Legislature or as chief executive of the commonwealth. Whether in the United States or Confederate Senate, or at the board of the National Cabinet, he met all his responsibilities with fidelity, integrity and ability. He was truly equal to any and every emergency. He was a great man, and to be truly great is to be truly good. Cæsar was a better soldier than Washington; Napoleon conquered more fields than Lee, but how immeasurably are Cæsar and Napoleon below the niche of Fame, where Washington and Lee are enshrined, for Lee and Washington were not only great soldiers but great men. Many statesmen adorn our annals, but few of these are exemplars, both of statesmen and men, and fewer still are Grahams.

In sympathy with the grief of North Carolina, I move the adoption of the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Commission to build the Western Insane Asylum of North Carolina, have learned with profound regret the sad intelligence of the death of Hon. Wm. A. Graham, a former member of this Commission,

Be it resolved, That the loss of the Hon. William Alexander Graham, a distinguished patriot and statesman, is a public calamity, a misfortune to the whole Union, and a deep and painful sorrow to North Carolina.

Resolved, That his faithful public service in many and varied positions of trust and responsibility through a long life of pure and spotless fame, will be held in grateful remembrance as a shining example to his fellow citizens and generations to come.

Resolved, That we offer the respectful expression of our sympathy in this great bereavement to the family of the honored dead.

On motion of Col. Walton,

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to engross these resolutions upon the records of the building commission and forward copies of the same to the family of the illustrious deceased, and to the newspapers of Hillsborough and Raleigh, all of which was unanimously adopted.

T. GEO. WALTON, Secretary of Board.

SOUTHERN CENTENNIAL HEADQUARTERS.—It is stated that Mr. Ed. Mercer, a well known capitalist of Atlanta, Georgia, has been conceded the privilege to erect a restaurant on the centennial grounds. Mr. Mercer was in Philadelphia on Monday with Colonel Robert A. Alston, of the Atlanta Herald. They expressed the intention of establishing headquarters for Southern citizens in Philadelphia—a sort of intelligence bureau, in which every Southerner attending the exhibition shall be registered, with his address, while in the city. Their influence in the meantime is being used to arouse an interest in the exhibition in the South.

CAUSE OF THE GEORGIA CONSPIRACY.—An intelligent correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette, writing from Augusta, says that the relations between the races in Georgia, where they are let alone by agitators, have never been so pleasant as they are now, and that the negroes generally denounce the late mad and wicked plot. He explains that there are two distinct classes of negroes in Georgia: the Virginia and Maryland negroes, who are several generations removed from the native Africans, and the coast negroes, many of whom came as late as 1808. The first are intelligent, industrious and peaceable, and are mainly in the interior. The others, he says, are thick-headed, ignorant savages, who can be induced to do anything wicked.

Prince Gortschakoff, prime minister of Russia, is nearly eighty years of age, but firm in health and a hard worker. At this season of the year his favorite residence is ten miles from St. Petersburg on the Neva.

The Prince of Wales will have a cashmere shawl presented to him while he is in India. It is now being made at Srenuggur, and will cost 8,000 rupers.

There was a curious cross-play in the awards to exhibitors in the Paris Salon of this year. M. Falguiere, a sculptor, recieved a medal for the painting entitled. "The Wrestlers," but nothing for his statutes, while M. Langan, a painter and designer, recived a medal in sculpture as fared as badly in his own speciality as M. Falguiere. It would not be unnatural to conclude that this was the case of mistaken vocations either of the artists or judges.

BE YOUR OWN PHYSICIAN.—There is no case of Dyspepsia that Green's August Flower will not cure. Come to the Drug Store of J. R. H. Carmer, Raleigh, and inquire about it. If you suffer from Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Liver Complaint or derangement of the System, try it. Two or three doses will relieve you.

Ague Conqueror is the only remedy in the United States that contains no Quinine, Arsenic, or other poisons injurious to the system, that will cure Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Billious Fevers, and the Chills not return during the season. It permanently cures Fever and Ague of long standing.

A VERDICT IN ACCORDANCE WITH PROOFS—The verdict of the public in favor of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters differs from none that might be mentioned, in being to strict accordance with the proofs repeatedly adduced in support of the claims of America's most popular remedy. It may well be doubted if there was ever a medicine in substantiation of whose merits such a mass of unsolicted testimony has accumulated. An examination of this testimony establishes a fact of the last importance to the sick and debilitated, as well as those who are exposed to unfavorable influences of climate—namely, that the Bitters are an unequalled tonic, an active and thorough specific for every disorder of the digestive, biliary and excretory organs, a reliable means of regulating the discharge of the most important functions of the body, and a supreme protective against intermittent and remittent fevers, and all other disease to which malaria gives birth.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

QUITE a number of our State exchanges endorse the nomination by the Wilmington Journal of the Hon. David S. Reid, of Rockingham, for the Presidency of the State Constitutional Convention to convene on the 6th inst. Mr. Reid's experience would make him a most excellent presiding officer.

GOVERNOR HARTRANFT, of Pennsylvania, has determined to break up "hangman's day" in his State. He has not permitted an execution to take place on Friday since the beginning of his adminstration. It is time the ridiculous superstitions concerning Friday were dispersed. Friday is as good a day as any other. It has been sadly maligned and misused.

WE are glad to learn the most cheering prospects from Chapel Hill as to the probable success of the opening session of the State University. Let the people of North Carolina feel the importance of sustaining the noble effort that is being made to revive this institution, and let her sons be educated at home instead of going to other States. Let the State University become what it was in days of yore—the pride of the State and the peer of any similar institution in the country.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer thus calmly reviews the situation of affairs in North Carolina:

"The Gazette speaks of the Republican victory in North Carolina. That victory is altogether mythical, The Democrats carried the Convention which is to revise the Constitution of the State. By the death of a member a tie has been brought about. The Democrats carried the Convention over a fraudulent Republican legislative apportionment, which gave to the negro sections of the State an undue legislative power. The new Constitution which will be adopted will remedy all this. Then what will become of the victory aforesaid?

THE Durham Tobacco Plant says of Major W. N. Patterson, the gentleman who has been nominated in Orange to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Gov. Graham: "We to-day raise at our mast head the name of our candidate Maj. W. N. Patterson. This gentleman is well known to the citizens of the entire county and no man could have been put forward who would give such entire satisfaction as Maj. Patterson. We do not presume the Rads will have a candidate in the field, satisfied a tremendous defeat was in store for them. But let not our people become too sanguine of success, and too many of them stay away from the polls on the day of election. Let there be a full turn out and give Patterson a rousing vote."

THE mistakes made by foreign journalists, the English and French especially, when attempting to discuss American affairs, are familiar to all from frequent repetition. Thus, during the late civil war, an intelligent French journal, referring to the death of the Confederate General, Earl Van Dorn, in 1862, informed its readers that "M. le General Marquis Van Dorn" had been killed, accepting the given name, Earl, as a title of nobility; and lately an equally intelligent Paris journal produced the following paragraph, innocent enough but for the strange blunder of placing a knight or a baronet in the Gubernatorial chair of Kansas: "It is not alone in Algeria that the grasshoppers are devouring the crops. The Governor of Kansas, Sir Osborne, estimates at more than fifteen thousand the number of inhabitants reduced to poverty by the ravages of the locusts."

BE AT YOUR POSTS.

The Democratic members elect of the State Convention will realize the importance of being in this city at the assembling of that body on the 6th inst. Let no member fail to be present. Would it not be best for them to come a day or two in advance in order to prevent any accident? Each individual member holds the destinies of his party in his hands.

TRADE is gradually improving in New York, and the Bulletin says in some departments the traffic already exhibits a fair degree of activity. There are a good many Southern and Western merchants in the markets, and the leading dry goods jobbers are busily engaged in forwarding well assorted stocks of merchandise to remote sections of the country. The indications are that the demand for goods from Southern buyers will be larger than for several previous years, while the outlook in other respects is favorable to a more spirited general trade during the incoming month.

THE REPRESENTATIVE FROM TYRRELL.

As much interest is felt throughout the State as to the probable action of the Independents elected to the Convention, as, to a greater or less extent t,hey will control the organization and complexion of that body, we give below a letter concerning Dr. Ramsom, the Independent elected from Tyrrell, only adding that Mr. Hassell, the writer, has at heart the true interests of North Cerolina as deeply as any other man in the State:

HILLSBORO, N. C., Aug. 25, 1875.

Mr. J. D. Cameron:

DEAR SIR:—I see that the member elect to the Convention from Tyrrell (which is my native county) has been put down as doubtful, with the probability of his acting with the Republican party. I felt an interest in the matter, and knowing that county had always proved true to herself and mankind, I wrote to the Sheriff of the county to know how Dr. Ransom stood. His reply was that Ransom ran as a strong Democrat and Convention man. Now, for the future count him with us.

L. L. HASSELL.

VAULTING ambition sometimes overleaps itself, and we are compelled to believe that this is the case with Gov. Brogden (the Accidental) in his unwarranted conduct in regard to the Orange vacancy. His ambition is not yet satisfied—the "plow boy" of Wayne aspires to still for these honors at the hands of his party, for he not only desires the nomination for Governor at the hands of the Republicans of North Carolina in 1876, but he would fain have the second place upon the next National Republican ticket. And for these reasons has he felt impelled, in the effort to give him a stronger claim upon his party, to lend himself as a petty tool in the accomplishment of the nefarious ends of a party that cannot even respect the vail of death—which has caused the Governor to lose that respect that was entertained for him throughout the State as an officer, while he will be ruthlessly sacrified by his party in 1876 in order to put forward a mere available man. How much better would it have been for Gov. Brogden if he had not listened to the pleading of men who only used his overleaping ambition as a cat's paw with which to obtain their chestnuts—the pleading of men who only wished to forward their own ambitious ends, not caring a whit how much Governor Brogdon might suffer for an action that will eternally damn him in North Carolina.

THE Democrats seem to be very much disappointed, and not without reason, at the check they have encountered in North Carolina. They have long been anxious to bring about a change in the Constitution of that State, and are especially desirous of getting the punishment of whipping revived for negroes. They thought they were strong enough to elect a convention, but to their dismay they found a majority against them on a popular vote of from fifteen to twenty thousand. The Republicans scarcely looked for so great a triumph. Judge Settle and other competent observers believe that this defeat of the Democrats will infallibly lose them the State next year.—Under these circumstances, there is great gloom among the Democrats of North Carolina, and the famous "rooster" of the New York World has not been seen lately on his accustomed perch.—N. Y. Times.

The Times has allowed itself to be misinformed by its Radical friends in this State, and has like these friends reckoned without its host. However nearly the Democratic party of North Carolina may have come to sustaining a defeat, from an honest opposition in its own party to the call of a Convention, the Republicans have missed the victory they so loudly proclaimed, and their leaders are at present only holding on to the fond belief that by "death" or some other cause they may be enabled to defeat the wish of the large body of the true people of North Carolina to frame a Constitution suited to the wants of the State. Again has the Times reckoned wrong in its calculation of the popular vote of the State—with all the rascality perpetrated by an unscrupulous party, and with the great disadvantage under which the Democratic party labored from opposition to the measure in its own ranks by a minority which it could illy lose, the popular vote against the measure amounts to but a few thousand.

When, however, the Democratic party of the State shall go into the fight in 1876 upon real party issues, our lines will be closed up, and the Times and its Republican advisors in this State will find that they have again reckoned without their host.

[For the Daily News.

Rights of Minorities.

I am a democrat. I believe in the right of people to govern themselves. But practically the good people are in the habit of dividing themselves into two parties, one of which being in the majority, the other necessarily in the minority. Under the plan of election established by our fathers and still in vogue, the majority elects all of the officers, and the minority have no representation. If five County Commissioners are to be selected, the majority elect all five. It is certainly proper that a majority should have a controlling voice in public affairs; but then have the minority no rights? This is a great defect in our system of popular government. How far it is a defect, I shall advert to hereafter, but assuming it to be a political evil, should it not be corrected? Why not? Because the plan is hoary with age, may we not criticise it—and set in judgment upon it; and if it be found defective, remodel it? Is anything of human institution so sacred that we may not with due care—or serious deliberation—with an enlightened judgment—examine its workings to a certain whether it cannot be modified to advantage? Consider the progress that has been made in every branch of industry—of human action—of practical life! Nothing stands still, everything moves forward towards the goal of perfection. The watchword is PROGRESS. Shall our political system alone be stationary? Shall government, the greatest department of human affairs, alone remain chained to effete ideas? If we can improve our political system and make it conform more nearly to our notions of justice and fair play—if we can throw into it more common sense and make it harmonize more thoroughly with our sense of right, why should we hesitate to inaugurate the change and remedy its patent deficiences. If the disfranchisement of the minority was not considered a political evil in the olden time, must we still insist on disfranchisement because we "should not be better than our fathers?"

No: in the science of government, in practical politics, let us keep pace with the advances made in every other department of human action.

Let us endeavor in this, as in other matters, to discover defects and blot them out; and by this means to ameliorate the condition of our citizens. Large bodies of our citizens are disfranchised: let us strike off their political fetters. They have no representation in their local government: let our motto be, "no taxation without representation." A majority elects, and rules and governs through its chosen officers; the defeated minority pays its taxes, grumbles and growls, but has no voice in the management of the common concerns. What is this but lawful tyranny—oppression sanctioned by law!

To illustrate: Suppose a county casting 2,000 black votes and 1,500 white votes: the races are massed against each other. What voice have the 1,800 minority in the management of their local goverment? They have no representation. The 2,000 blacks have the political mastery. Are not the whites as truly and practically disfranchised as if they were forbidden by law to cast a ballot? Why should they vote? What can they accomplish? Can they elect a single man professing their sentiments? Can they gain a single representative in the board? Who are the political masters? If the tyranny of majority rule be oppressive in other communities, how galling, and odious and hateful, must it be where the white minority see their local government pass under the absolute dominion of a race of blacks—their valets, domesties and laborers? Can not minorities be emancipated from this thraldom? They are at least a part of the people; and should have some rights in a popular government. Suffrage should not be a mockery and delusion to them. Casting the ballot should not be an unmeaning ceremony. It should have some result. Minorities are entitled to be heard. They should have representation at all events in the Boards controlling their home affairs. To deprive them of participation in these matters is to oppress them. Yet this is an oppression, a tyranny—a despotism—incident to and springing from our present system of electing officers. It is the outgrowth of majority rule. Is not a change desirable?

A change by which, while the majority may still control, yet the minority may have representation? This is easily accomplished—by introducing CUMULATIVE SUFFRAGE. This is not antagonistic with Democratic principles: it is carrying these principles to their legtimate conclusions; it would be perfecting our popular system. With cumulative suffrage, no man would be deprived of his vote, but greater freedom would be given to the voter. If five officers, as county commissioners, are to be elected, the voter has five votes; these he can bestow all for one man, or otherwise at his pleasure. It would increase the voting power of the voter. It would render the ballot more effective; it makes suffrage more valuable.

It would confer new and important rights and power on the people. Besides, as a necessary consequence of cumulative suffrage, the minority will obtain representation. The majority would still retain its controlling power—but the minority would gain a voice in the management of its local concerns. Why should we not have cumulative suffrage in the election of County Commissoners?

SURRENDER OF SEO D'URGEL.—The dispatches from Madrid indicate that the Carlists have been compelled to propose the surrender of Seo D'Urgel, which they have held against a vigorous siege of several weeks. Seo D'Urgel is an episcopal city in Spain, in the province of Catalonia, situated in a plain among the Pyrenees, between the rivers Balira and Segre. Its importance to the Carlists is simply local, however but its loss carries with it much prestige and influence.

The New Tennessee Senator.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial tells us more of Judge Key, the successor of Andrew Johnson in the United States Senate. He is a tall, straight, well-formed man, with dark hair and dark eyes, gray, and one of the kindest faces I ever looked upon:

Judge Key is comparatively a poor man. He does not love money. We cannot imagine him, under any possible circumstances, selling his vote or leading himself to any corrupt or even doubtful combination whatever. He will be as honest a Senator as ever set foot in the Capitol. I doubt if any man who knows him will deny this. We would be the gainers if we could pitch the Camerons out of the Senate and put in the Keys. We might perhaps lose in ability, but we would gain in honesty, and the rings would dissolve like smoke.

Judge Key is very simple and unexpensive in his habits of life. He assumes nothing for display. Until recently he lived in a small one-story house in Chattanooga. I remember going to this house some few years ago, and his meeting me at the door with two children hanging to each leg. He now lives in a more imposing brick, surrounded by shade and shrubbery, where his half dozen children romp and play and where he enjoys a degree of happiness that honors of the Senate can add little to.

Judge Key is not a man of great ability. He is not a Johnson, a Sumner, or a Conkling; but he is an able, upright, honest man, one who will among the chosen great of the nation, do abundant credit to his State and himself.

The party newspapers, or some of them, in the North will be sure to mention that he was an officer in the Southern army, and comment unfavorably upon that, adding his name to the five dozen and odd who have been elected to Congress, and work themselves into fear that the ex-Confederates are about to take the country. Now if representative men are selected in the South this cannot be avoided. The great mass of them went into the army, and nineteen out of twenty of the leading men of the South—the representative men—are ex-Confederates.

Another point worth remembering is that the war has been over upward of ten years, and Colonel Key is is the first ex-Confederate that has been sent to the Senate from Tennessee Of Union men there have five—Patterson, Fowler, Brownlow, Johnson and Cooper. When we reflect that the proportion of Union men to Confederates in Tennessee was only about one to five, it cannot be claimed that the Confederates have crowded themselves forward to the extent that their numbers would justify. Even in Congress, from Tennessee, there have been more Union men than ex-rebels, notwithstanding they out number the Union five to one.

Judge Key has always been a hard-money man, and we have reason to believe that the inflationist will gain nothing by his advent to Congress. Still, he is not a contractionist, nor in favor of a rush to specie payment when it will have to be done over the ruin of the business interests. He favors a middle course between contraction and expansion, until the country recovers from the losses of the war, and can resume specie payment without crash on crash.

VOTING IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The Philadelphia Times calls the attention of citizens to the fact that under the new constitution of Pennsylvania only those are entitled to vote who have been assessed at least two months, and have paid taxes at least one month before the date of the election. A person of foreign birth must have been naturalized at least one month before the election. As the date of the next general election is Tuesday, November 2, voters must be assessed on or before Wednesday, September 1, and must have paid taxes on or before Friday, October 1, which is also the last day for taking out naturalization papers.

DECLINE IN COAL.—The New York Commercial of Tuesday says one of the largest coal dealing companies of Pennsylvania has announced the reduction of coal at retail prices as follows: Grate and egg, $5,70; stove, $6, chestnut, $5,40.

At a newspaper office in Australia there was at one time a tablet informing visitors that the editor could only be spoken to during business hours, by purchasing tickets of admission at the door. The price was ten shillings for half an hour's talk.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach, Spleen, It is eminently a Family Medicine; and having kept ready for immediate resort will save many a spell of suffering and many a dollar in time and doctor's bills.

After Forty Years trial it is receiving the most unqualified testimonials of its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility. Eminent physicians commend it as the most for CONSTIPATION, HEADACHE, PAIN in the Shoulders, DIZZINESS, SOUR STOMACH, bad taste in the mouth, BILIOUS ATTACKS, PALPITATION, of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, DESPONDENCY, &c., &c. Use for bodings of EVIL, all of which are the offspring of a diseased LIVER.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly, poor appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from TORPID LIVER, or "BILIOUSNESS," and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as

The LIVER, the largest gland in the body, is usually the seat of the disease, and if not regulated throws the whole system into confusion, causing SICK HEADACHE, PAIN in the Shoulder, CROSSNESS, DEPRESSION of SPIRITS, LOSS of APPETITE, COSTIVENESS, sometimes alternating with LAX. The STOMACH is often deranged, the bowels in a CONSTIVE, sometimes alternating with lax. The patient is frequently troubled with PILES, and in fact suffers from a HEAVY SENSATION, combined with a DISINCLINATION to EXERTION of BODY or MIND, accompanied with PAINFUL APPREHENSION of having left undone something which ought to have been done. These symptoms are only a few of the complaining of weakness, DEBILITY, and low spirits. Sometimes MANY of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times only a few of them; but the LIVER is generally the organ more or less involved.

Nearly all diseases originate from indigestion and Torpidity of the Liver. One dose is always anxiously required. It acts on the Liver and Digestive organs, stimulating them into healthy action, and thereby purifying the blood. Jaundice, Chronic Diarrhœa, Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulder, Cough, Chills, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, Low spirits, or the blues, and all the horrible symptoms, for which a SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR is the only remedy ever discovered. It is purely vegetable, and being a simple but concentrated compound, can do no injury in any quantities that it may be taken. It is mild in its operation, but searching and effectual in every way; it has been in use for many years, and hundreds of the most respectable certificates have been received from all parts of the country, testifying to its being the purest and best

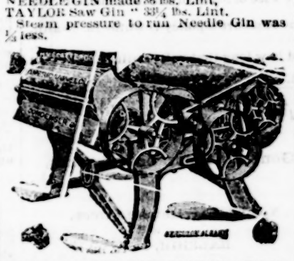
COTTON GINS.

TRIALS OF GINS AT THE WILMINGTON FAIR, Dec. 13th, 1874, between a 40 Circular Needle Gin and a 40 Saw Taylor Gin, each Gin having 100 lbs. seed cotton;

NEEDLE GIN ginned 100 lbs. in 6 minutes,
TAYLOR Saw Gin " 100 lbs. in 9 minutes,
NEEDLE GIN made 36 lbs. Lint,
TAYLOR Saw Gin " 33½ lbs. Lint.

Steam pressure to run Needle Gin was ¼ less.



PLEASE EXAMINE THE PRACTICAL RESULT.

The merchantable bale of cotton being an average of four hundred and seventy pounds, for convenience we submit a test on thirteen hundred pounds cotton in seed, as being a near approximate to the merchantable bale in lint.

TEST OF NEEDLE GIN.

Thirteen hundred pounds of seed cotton yielding in proportion to the above test, produces four hundred and sixty-eight pounds of lint and calculating the price per pound at fourteen cents, (as an average rate obtained for the seasons crop), the net value of the production would be $65 52. The time consumed in ginning would be seventy-eight minutes to the bale.

TEST OF TAYLOR SAW GIN.

Thirteen hundred pounds of seed cotton yielding in above proportion, would produce four hundred and thirty-two pounds lint (or some thirty-six lbs. lint per bale less than the Needle Gin), which at fourteen cents would net $ 0 48—or a loss of $5 04 per bale as compared with the Needle Gin. This would require the ginning of only fifty-three bales TO PAY FOR YOUR GIN, as the amount saved would buy you a Forty Circle Gin.
